

Acute Medical Unit

C1 | Robina Hospital

The Acute Medical Unit provides direct expert clinical care to all acute medical conditions within an inpatient setting. Medical conditions include cardiac, respiratory, endocrine, aged care and neurology. 16 mobile telemetry units are available for cardiac monitoring.

Professional Opportunities

- Leadership management
- Preceptorship
- Mentoring
- Ward leadership
- IDC insertion
- NGT insertion
- Peripheral IV cannulation
- Venepuncture
- PICC lines
- Pain management
- CADD pump management
- End of life care
- Wound care
- High acuity patients
- Post ICU patients MDT and allied health team approach

Educational Resources

- Clinical facilitator
- Nurse educator
- Ward inservices
- Preceptorship
- Learning online
- Workshops
- Ward based competencies

Learning Opportunities

- High acuity and high flow
- Telemetry
- Mental Health for eating disorders
- Cardiac monitoring and chest pain management
- Respiratory management and competencies
- IDC management including catheterisation
- Management of medically unstable eating disorder patients
- ICU step down patients
- Critical Thinking
- Neurological Care
- Chest Drains
- Partnering with community and non-government organisations
- MDT and Allied Health team approach

