

Research Grants Scheme 2018

Lead PI	Project Title	Level of Research Experience	Profession	Awarded
Dr Kelly Weir	Oral feeding safety and aspiration risk in infants and children receiving nasal high flow nasal ventilation support.	Mid	Allied Health	$75,410
Dr Christa Bell	Rapid Resuscitation in Paediatric Sepsis – A randomized controlled study to reduce morbidity and mortality due to sepsis in children	Mid	Medicine	$99,860
Dr Georgia Tobiano	Patient participation in bedside handover: tool development and testing	Mid	Nursing	$29,079
Prof Andrea Marshall	Enhancing NutRition Intake in Critically Injured Patients during RecOVERy from trauma (ENRICH and ImPROVE)	High	Nursing	$100,000
Dr Georgia Tobiano	Discharge Medication Safety Strategies: What is the Patient's Role?	Mid	Nursing	$42,206
Dr Shelley Roberts	Partnerships In Improving nutrition among hospitalised PATiEnts (PARTICIPATE): towards development of a HHS-wide toolkit	High	Allied Health	$76,672
Ms Deena Seesaengnom	Participatory dynamic simulation modelling: a systems approach to understanding the relationship between obesity, modifiable risk factors, interventions, and population health outcomes in the Gold Coast.	Mid	Medicine	$90,148
Dr Gillian Stockwell-Smith	The Simple Project: Strategies to involve family members in the care of people living with cognitive impairment in acute care settings	New	Nursing	$74,742
A/Prof Laurie Grealish	The role of practice pedagogies in improving older person friendly care practices and reducing hospital acquired complications	High	Nursing	$99,814
Ms Hazel Brittain	Economic Evaluation: Comparing midwifery caseload care with other models of maternity care	Mid	Medicine	$49,263
Prof Julia Crilly	The impact of an international mass gathering (2018 Commonwealth Games) on Gold Coast Hospitals emergency departments care delivery.	High	Multi	$52,878
Dr Caroline Thng	Preventing gonorrhoea: does the licenced meningococcal vaccine Bexsero provide cross-protection?	Mid	Medicine	$99,965
Dr Kristen Jones (PhD)	Development and validation of an instrument to predict PTSD and depression following traumatic injury	New	Allied Health	$86,928
Prof Gerben Keijzers	Multi-centre observational descriptive study of current practice: The Australasian Resuscitation In Sepsis Evaluation: FLUID or Vasopressors In Emergency Department Sepsis. (ARISE FLUIDS observational study)	High	Medicine	$93,882
Mrs Amanda McCowan (PhD)	Effects of Pulmonary Rehabilitation with Occupational Therapy on Participation in Daily Activities: A Mixed Methods Analysis	New	Allied Health	$46,690