

GENERAL MEDICINE

B5 South | Gold Coast University Hospital

general medicine

This 24 bedded unit, provides care to patients with general medical conditions namely respiratory, cardiac, rheumatology, renal, urology, orthopaedic, endocrine, infectious diseases, palliative care, acute care of the elderly with geriatric syndrome symptoms and mental health conditions which include eating disorders. The staff in General Medical Unit (GMU) aim to provide quality care through evidence-based practice, by means of a multidisciplinary approach, providing holistic care for patients, using the Magnet model of care.

Learning Opportunities

- IDC insertion
- NGT insertion
- Peripheral IV cannulation
- Venepuncture
- PICC lines
- Pain management
- CADD pump management
- End of life care
- Wound care
- High acuity patients
- Post ICU patients MDT and allied health team approach

Professional Opportunities

- Leadership workshops
- Clinical nurse workshops
- Preceptorship
- Team leadership
- Champion of a speciality interest
- Career succession planning
- Clinical research projects in collaboration with Griffith University

Educational Resources

- Nurse educator
- Clinical facilitator
- Peers
- Preceptors
- Clinical researchers
- Ward based inservice education program
- New graduate transition program
- Learning online
- NMPRP with portfolio management

Connect with us

www.goldcoast.health.qld.gov.au

NMERU/2019