

Chronic Disease Programs

Robina Health Precinct

Helensvale Community Health Centre

The Chronic Disease Program offers chronic disease management and rehabilitation for people living in the community with cardiac disease, heart failure, respiratory disease, and diabetes. We also provide a wound care service and telehealth.

Learning Opportunities

- Chronic disease management
 - Chronic heart failure
 - Respiratory disease
 - Diabetes
- Cardiac rehabilitation
- Wound care
- Telehealth
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander programs
- Falls & Balance program and Cognitive Disorders clinic

Professional Opportunities

- Team leader
- Clinical Nurse Consultant
- Clinical nurse, Registered nurse, Enrolled nurse
- Research and quality projects
- Portfolio management
- Nurse Navigator

Educational Resources

- Nurse educator
- Fortnightly in service
- Mentoring
- External training courses (e.g. Hospital to Home heart failure training course)
- Conferences
- Other community services (e.g. community rehab)
- Nursing and Midwifery Professional Recognition Program

