

Neuroscience Rehabilitation

C5 East | Gold Coast University Hospital

neuroscience rehabilitation

This unit is a dynamic 28 bed multidisciplinary facility that cares for patients following a stroke, acquired brain injury, neurosurgery, and other neurological conditions such as multiple sclerosis, Guillain barre syndrome or Parkinson's disease, patients with spinal injuries. Reconditioning programs are also provided for cardiac, renal and oncology patients.

Learning Opportunities

- The rehabilitation process
- Translational simulation training
- Case Management
- FIM training
- Liaison with community partners
- Multidisciplinary collaboration
- Complex Wound Care
- NGT insertion and management
- Central line care
- Tracheostomy care and management
- Discharge planning
- Complex rehabilitation processes for multi trauma patients

Professional Opportunities

- Succession planning
- Magnet® Nursing Excellence program
- Clinical facilitation
- Clinical and leadership management development
- Research and continuing education opportunities

Educational Resources

- Nurse educator
- Clinical facilitator
- Orientation program
- Neuroscience and rehabilitation inservices workshops
- Clinical nurse consultants
- Allied health team

