

Surgical Unit

H3 South | Robina Hospital

surgical unit

This 28 bed unit provides quality care to both long and short stay surgical patients. Care is delivered to pre and post operative patients in specialties such as colorectal, upper gastrointestinal, hepatobiliary, general surgical, plastics, gynae-urology and malignant breasts.

Learning Opportunities

- Acute pain management
- Multidisciplinary team meetings across gynae-urology, Gastrointestinal and plastics
- Clinical leadership (unit based/health service program)
- IDC and bladder irrigation catheterisation and management
- Wounds, grafts and flaps
- Irritable bowel disease
- High acuity patients
- Post ICU patients
- Enteral feeding management

Educational Resources

- Clinical Facilitator
- Nurse Educator
- Transition support program
- Preceptorship
- Inservice workshops
- Learning online
- Orientation program

Professional Opportunities

- Leadership management
- Preceptorship
- Succession Planning
- Ward based leadership
- Portfolio management (NSQHS standards)

